

THE BISHOP'S ENTRY OF CHURCHES STATUTE 1907-1909

Whereas it is desirable that the rights and powers of the Bishop should be more clearly defined in respect to officiating and preaching in all consecrated churches or chapels and building licensed for public worship within the Diocese.

Be it resolved and declared by the Bishop, Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Bunbury, in Synod assembled, that the Bishop has the right at all times to enter every consecrated church or chapel and every building licensed for public worship within the Diocese for the purpose of saying public prayers, administering the Sacraments, and preaching, and performing all other rites and ceremonies according to the use of the Anglican Church of Australia.
